

8th March – school opening for all children

Dear Parent and Carers,

As you will have heard on the news, schools are opening for all children on Monday 8th March. We are really excited about this and it will be wonderful to have all of the children back in the classrooms.

On a personal note it will be fantastic to start getting to know children and families of St James' because since becoming the headteacher we have been in lockdown, so I have only had the opportunity to meet a few people.

Next week, we will be sending out more details about the children returning, including a video of the school to help the children prepare to leave home schooling and return to the classroom.

We will send information out via the usual methods (email and MarvellousMe), however we will also start using our school website more and our new school Twitter account. You can find these through the links below:

School website: <https://stjameshullacademy.co.uk/>

School Twitter account: <https://twitter.com/StJamesPriSch>

So next week the school will continue to be open for the children who are currently attending, e.g. children with critical worker parents, but we are really looking forward to having all children back on Monday 8th March.

Yours sincerely,

Amanda Devaney

Head Teacher
